OKLAHOMA VISITORS IN COLORADO

Colorado Springs, Sept. 16.—S. D. Fagin, an Oklahoma City young man, had the distinction this summer of being a member of one of the most unique musical organizations in the United States, the Colorado Midland band of Colorado Springs. Mr. Fagin played second tuba in the band during the season of 1912.

One of the most delightful features of the summer season in Colorado Springs and Manitou is the concerts given by this organization, which is recruited from the pick of the musical talent of the country. The band season opens in May or early in June and closes about the middle of September. Ten concerts are given each week, in the city parks in Colorado Springs, at Stratton park, and at Soda Springs park in Manitou, the programs ranging from the severely classical to the latest popular numbers. Because of the fame of the Pikes Peak region as a summer resort, musicians from all parts of the United States are anxious for places in the organization and the chance of spending a summer in cool Colorado, and as a result the Midland band ranks with the best in the world. H. O. Wheeler of Kansas City was director of the band the past season, a place which has been filled by such musicians as Herman Bellstedt, H. T. Irvine and others.

When "off duty" the members of the band employ their time in visiting the scenic beauties of the region, and as a final treat of the season Manager H. P. Robison of the band arranger a trip up Pikes Peak. The band played a short concert at the summit, 14,147 feet above the sea.

Mrs. R. S. O'Neal of Oklahoma City is at 430 East San Rafael street during her stay in Colorado Springs.

Mrs. H. L. Stewart has gone to Oklahoma City from Colorado Springs, where she has been spending some time.

Dr. H. H. Smith of the First Christian church of Oklahoma City gave a lecture at the auditorium of the First Christian church in Colorado Springs August 29.

A. Gordan of Mangum is a sightseer in the Pikes Peak region. Another visitor from Mangum is Connie Straube, at the Acacia hotel, Colorado Springs. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Robertson of Lawton have been sightseeing in Colorado Springs and Manitou while on a pleasure trip in cool Colorado.

Mrs. Montfort Jones and Mrs. R. Bernard Jones of Bristow are in the Pikes region for a short stay in the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Prewitt and Etta Pelsey of Waynoka are in the Pikes Peak region on a pleasure trip.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Robinson and

Nina and Nell Robinson of Okmulgee are enjoying mountain breezes at Colorado Springs for a few weeks.

F. B. Drew of McAlester has been enjoying a motor trip to Denver and Colorado Springs and through the Pikes Peak region.

E. Goddard and Pearl Goddard of Suid are sightseeing at Colorado Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Dowell of El Reno are in Colorado Springs on a pleasure trip.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Bebert of Sapulpa have been in the Pikes Peak region on a sightseeing trip.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lewis of Avard are among the Oklahomans in Colorado Springs and vicinity this season. August Hopkins and Golda Bowman of Crescent are guests at the Alamo hotel while in Colorado Springs. Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Brady and family of Bartlesville have taken a cottage at 215 East Uintah street. Colorado Springs for the month of September.

Mrs. P. P. Scott of Sayre is registered at the Antlers hotel in Colorado Springs during her stay in the Pikes Peak region.

Mrs. Scott and sons of Pawhuska are guests at the Acacia hotel while enjoying mountain breezes at Colorado Springs.

B. O. Moffett of Hennessey is a visitor in Colorado Springs this season.

Fannie Briscoe of Hugo is a sightseer in the Pikes Peak region.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Rittenhouse of Wagoner, who are spending some time in Colorado Springs and vicinity, recently made the trip up Pikes Peak over the Cog railroad.

New University Professors Arrive.

Norman, Okla., Sept. 16.—Dr. W. W. Phelan, the new professor of psychology and director of the school of teaching at the state university reached Norman yesterday. Dr. Phelan comes from Waco, Texas, where he has been head of the school of education, professor of philosophy and director of the summer school, at Baylor university. Dr. Phelan holds his doctor's degree from George Washington university, Washington, D. C. Professor Stocking comes from Kalamazoo, Mich., where he has been special chemist and drug analyst for the Upjohn company of that city. He holds a degree from the University of Michigan. Both men brought their families and household goods with them, and expect to make Norman their future home.

W. R. Hendrix who recently returned from a trip up in Illinois is in town today. He says Illinois doesn't look as good to him as Oklahoma.

COLLIERS BALK ON TARIFF GRAFT

New York, Sept. 16.—Collier's, most ardent of all Roosevelt supporters, refuses to swallow all over again the theory that "the government will see that the tariff graft stops in the pay envelope." It was bad enough when Mark Hanna hoodwinked the public with it sixteen and a dozen years ago; the Third Term's candidate's attempt to palm it off now is the final straw. Collier's, in its issue of September 14, serves notice on the Colonel as follows:

"The statement of Colonel Roosevelt, frequently reiterated, that the money powers are fighting against him exclusively, and are satisfied with both Taft and Wilson, is no doubt a perfectly candid statement of his belief, but it seems to us grossly inaccurate. The president, from some source to us unknown, has recently got plenty of money for his campaign.

"We happen to know that Mr. Perkins, while making it clear that he can raise all the money needed by the Bull Moose if he wants to, has held back and indicated that he might step out if things did not go according to his wish.

"We state this not as a surmise but as a fact.

"It doesn't mean anything against Colonel Roosevelt's independence, which is well established, but it does seem to us to constitute a reason for not making charges of probable subversion or helplessness against Governor Wilson. Whether or not big business men would care to help Governor Wilson financially can scarcely be known, as he is so particular about who contributes to his fund.

"Our guess would be that Mr. Jacob Schiff's support of Governor Wilson might be founded partly on the belief that he was going to be elected, as Mr. Schiff could scarcely take much satisfaction in the Governor's intense feelings about the existence of a money trust. We mention this instance because Mr. Roosevelt has chosen to emphasize Mr. Schiff as an indication that high finance fears only him.

"As a matter of fact, the Morgan interests in general will probably be backing the Colonel even more heavily than they are now before the campaign is over.

"On the monopoly issue the principal exponents of the Colonel's position are Judge Gary and Mr. Perkins.

"On the tariff issue, the old republican gag of Mark Hanna's day is served up anew, in the idea that the government will see that the tariff graft stops in the pay envelope. Workingmen have heard that story a long, long time, and meantime the price of living goes up, huge fortunes swell, trusts are created by tariff favors, the city grows at the expense of the country, and "prosperity" means plutocracy.

"To our best belief, Charles R. Crane is the only big business man in the country who has thrown his whole heart into the effort to elect Governor Wilson to the presidency."

New York, Sept. 16.—Robert A. Mills of Riverside, Cal., wants it known that he is not a political boss even though the nineteen members of his family are going to vote as he will vote in November.

Mr. Mills first became interested in politics when Polk was a candidate for president, and he cast his first vote for Pierce. He voted for Abraham Lincoln and has never failed to vote at a presidential election since.

Mr. Mills has advised democratic headquarters that he proposes voting for Wilson and Marshall, and says that his wife, three daughters, two daughters-in-law, seven sons, four sons-in-law and two grandsons, or a total of 20 votes, will vote the straight democratic ticket this year.

New York, Sept. 16.—Independent Voters' Leagues are being organized in Pennsylvania by the score. In one instance a League composed of 1,000 voters has enrolled 800 republicans who have agreed to vote for Wilson and Marshall.

Democratic leaders promise to surprise the country at large in November by the democratic vote which will revolutionize politics in the Keystone state.

Every department at national headquarters has been receiving communications daily from the congressional districts indicating the rapid growth of Wilson sentiment.

Mrs. R. F. Nix, Sr., arrived Saturday night from the state of Washington where she spent the summer.

WET STATES ON INCREASE

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 16.—The state-wide prohibition election in Arkansas, in which prohibition was defeated by a majority of over 15,000, is the first state-wide prohibition election of the present year. State-wide elections will be held in November in West Virginia and Colorado.

Only the following states are now under prohibition: Georgia, Kansas, Maine, Mississippi, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma and Tennessee.

Texas voted on state-wide prohibition in 1911 and defeated it. Maine voted on the repeal of the constitutional provision, and, while defeated, the result showed a change from "dry" to "wet" of 47,000 votes from the previous election, and this in an enormously increased vote.

A few days ago, Ohio repudiated its present system of outlawing the liquor business by a system of taxation, which prohibited license and made impossible the proper regulation and control of the business. It substituted therefore a constitutional amendment making license mandatory and, in the judgment of the best legal talent in the state, closes the door, by 85,000 majority, against statewide prohibition.

The liberal forces of the various states which have voted recently on prohibition, are declaring that both Colorado and West Virginia will remain "wet" in the November elections, and that Georgia and Tennessee will repudiate prohibition in the near future.

A plan for taking care of the charity work of Vinita has been arranged. Full details will appear in Tuesday's Chieftain. The committee in charge is as follows: Mrs. W. B. Coley, Mrs. Lee Barrett, Mrs. Chas. Reideman, Mrs. C. J. Neer, Mrs. J. S. Osborn.

Dog Saves Life.

Claremore, Okla., Sept. 15.—Lewis Juery, a farmer living several miles from this city, owes his life to the fidelity and devotion of his dog. Early last week Juery left his home for a squirrel hunt, taking the dog. On spiking a squirrel he discharged his gun, which burst at the breech inflicting a dangerous wound in Juery's face. He was rendered unconscious and remained so for four days. When he regained consciousness and realized his condition finding his dog by his side where he had kept a constant vigil the four weary days, he tied a handkerchief around the dog's neck and sent him home. Juery's family had been looking for him, and had partially given up hope of his return when the dog appeared at the home with his master's handkerchief. The family recognizing the handkerchief, followed the dog and were taken to the wounded man. Juery was immediately brought to this city and his wounds dressed. While the man is in a precarious condition, the physicians expect him to recover, although he probably will lose one eye.

Alluwee 18, Wagoner 2.

Big Chief Ben Tincup came in from Chelsea this morning where he pitched a game of ball yesterday for Alluwee against the famous Wagoner team. The big chief has a call to go to Bartlesville to pitch for that team next Sunday. He says the Seminole Indians at Muskogee were the hardest bunch that he had been up against this year. He pitched for the Muskogee State League this season.

Those who came up from Adair this morning were: R. L. Brock, J. M. Trolinger, Oce Bengie, Bob Hughes, Cleve Dunham and J. R. Carselovey.

John Nall of Pensacola came up last evening to visit Chief Buflington, who has been confined to his bed for nearly sixty days with a broken thigh. His friends are hoping he will soon be up. He is probably missed more than any one man that could be taken off the streets of Vinita.

POLICE SEARCH FOR WOMAN.

Death Trap for Oklahoma Editor Is New Murder Theory.

Guthrie, Okla., Sept. 15.—The opinion that Frank Merrick, circulation manager and reporter on the Daily Leader, who was killed last night from ambush, was shot by a negro, was eliminated entirely today and both the city and county authorities are working on the basis that there was a woman in the case and that Merrick was enticed to Third street, where he was killed.

Merrick was in the Daily Leader office about thirty minutes before the killing and left immediately after answering a telephone call. The officers have four different men under surveillance but no arrests have been made. Bloodhounds were used last night, but without success as too many people had visited the scene.

District Court at Pryor.

Judge Davis and stenographer, Thurman, went to Pryor this morning to open the September term of District court which convenes there today. There will be several murder cases on the docket which will consume considerable time and the term may extend over into October sometime. W. H. Kornegay and W. T. Rye, attorneys went down to represent clients before the court.

The court transacted some business here this morning before leaving. James Webber plead guilty to a charge of burglary and was given two years in the reform school. The city bond case was set for hearing September 27. On the evening of September 28 memorial services will be held for the late Judge Luman F. Parker. The committee in charge consists of Judge G. B. Dennison, Judge J. A. Gill, Seymour Riddle and O. L. Rider.

F. S. E. Amos and Carl Croninger have returned from an outing in the Spavinaw hills.

The roofing company arrived in town from Tulsa last night that will put the roof on the new Gunter building.
